ORA Sydney Gujarati Grammar School is the first Gujarati community language school established in the continent of Australia. This school is running under one of the principle programs of Om Rameshwar Association Inc. and is approved by the NSW Department of Education under the Community Languages Schools program.

The main objectives of the school are to:

- Teach Gujarati learning to enable students to communicate in the language
- Comprehend first hand Gujarati literature relating to culture, heritage, history, traditions, socio-economic aspects, and background as well as spirituality.
- Empower students to appreciate the importance of Gujarati language in their personal and professional careers along with its impact and influence in personal social development.

The school operates at two different locations on all Thursdays and Saturdays except school and public holidays.

Thursday classes are held at:

Bungarribee Community Centre
68 Sir Hercules Pde,
Bungarribee,
NSW 2767
